EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

Policy Title: OBJECTIVES OF EDUCATION IN COLFAX-MINGO COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Code No. 101.1

The Colfax-Mingo Community School District is looked upon as an ever-changing social community where young people live. Here they are provided opportunities to determine and to work toward goals that are purposeful and significant to them. They are given experience, which is designed to develop their talents and characteristics, which are essential to a wholesome child life. Subject matter is thought of in terms of units of living and learning.

We believe that in every experience the whole child must be considered; the mental, physical, moral, spiritual, emotional, and social being.

In teaching, as in parenthood, we must start where the child is. We must provide challenges for the child according to his/her abilities. We should not expect all children to develop at the same rate. The school program must be adjusted to the child's needs, interest, abilities, and rate of growth.

- A. Objectives of Human Relationships - to develop in children attitudes and proficiencies for wholesome human relationships.
- B. Objectives of Self-Realization - that our children may become all that their talents promise for them.
- C. Objectives of Civic Responsibility - that our children may learn that liberty with security demands civic responsibility.
- D. Objectives of Economic Efficiency - that young people may acquire a sense of economic accountability and productive efficiency.

In keeping with the educational objectives of the Colfax-Mingo Community School District, an effort will be made to assess the needs of the district. The needs assessment will be accomplished through input from students, staff, school board members and members of the community.

Policy Title: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Code No. 102 R1

It is the policy of the Colfax-Mingo Community School District not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, religion, creed, age (for employment), marital status (for programs), sexual orientation, gender identity and socioeconomic status (for programs) in its educational programs and its employment practices. There is a grievance procedure for processing complaints of discrimination. Students, parents of students, employees, and applicants for employment in the school district have the right to file a formal complaint alleging discrimination. The district has policies and procedures in place to identify and investigate complaints alleging discrimination. If appropriate, the district will take steps to prevent the recurrence of discrimination and to correct its discriminatory effects on the Complainant and others.

A Complainant may attempt to resolve the problem informally by discussing the matter with a building principal or a direct supervisor. However, the Complainant has the right to end the informal process at any time and pursue the formal grievance procedures outlined below. Use of the informal or formal grievance procedure is not a prerequisite to the pursuit of other remedies. Please note that informal processes and procedures are not to be used in certain circumstances (e.g., sexual harassment and sexual assault).

If the Complainant is under 18 years of age, the equity coordinator shall notify his or her parent(s)/guardian(s) that they may attend investigatory meetings in which the Complainant is involved. The complaint and identity of the Complainant, Respondent, or witnesses will only be disclosed as reasonably necessary in connection with the investigation or as required by law or policy.
